4.2.   CAR's may be initiated when actual or potential nonconformities are discovered, and apply to both products and processes. CAR's may be initiated:

- in the process 'Internal Audit' (see QSP 9.2-01 Internal Audit);

- in any process of QMS by any employee of [Company Name];

- for non-quality-related issues at [Company Name], such as safety and cleanliness issues.

Product nonconformities relate to products sold by [Company Name], both produced in-house and purchased from vendors.

Nonconformity refers to the failure to meet the requirements. Some examples of product nonconformities are:

- Improperly designed products
